

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Dedication to Bobby J. Creel	ii
Water Conference Advisory Committee	vii
Conference Program	viii
The Future of Water Adjudications
Judge Jerald Valentine, Third Judicial District Court	1
The Future of Water Adjudications in New Mexico
Greg Ridgley, Office of the State Engineer	9
Sandoval County Plans for Future Growth: Rio Puerco Desalination Plant
Guy Bralley, Sandoval County	17
Challenges When Combining Mutual Domestic Organizations to Meet Community and Colonias Water Needs
Martin Lopez, Lower Rio Grande Public Water Works Authority	25
Interbasin Transfer Projects: Impacts on Communities and Ecosystems
Bruce Thomson, University of New Mexico	31
How Santa Fe Plans to Meet its Growing Water Demands
Claudia Borchert, Sangre de Cristo Water Division	39
Luncheon Guest Speaker
The Future of Our Water Agencies: Do We Have the Right Agencies Doing the Right Things?
Bill Hume, journalist and formerly with Governor Richardson's staff	45
Permanent Storage at Elephant Butte: Meeting the Needs of Recreationists
Neal Brown, Marina Del Sur, Rock Canyon Marina and Damsite Resort at Elephant Butte Lake	49
The Benefits of Restoring Our River Ecosystems
Beth Bardwell, Audubon New Mexico	53
Sustaining Rivers through Instream Flows
Steve Harris, Far Flung Adventures and Rio Grande Restoration	59
Environmental Flow Issues and Science
Tom Annear, Wyoming Game and Fish Department	63
Innovations in Rural Wastewater Management - Decentralized Approach
Graham Knowles, New Mexico Environment Department	71
Increasing Institutional Resilience for Water Conservation
Frank Ward, New Mexico State University	75

Agriculture in New Mexico Aron Balok, Pecos Valley Artesian Conservancy District	79
Rainwater Harvesting and Recharge Techniques for Flood Control and Improved Stormwater Quality Vaikko Allen, CONTECH Construction Products, Inc.	85
The Role of Decentralized Artificial Recharge Systems in Water Resources Management Daniel B. Stephens, DB Stephens and Associates, Inc.	97
How Do We Deal with Our Aging Structures? Bruce Jordan, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers	107
Dealing with Aging Tribal Water Infrastructure Derrick Lente, Middle Rio Grande Conservancy District, Pueblo of Sandia	113
Water Rights Settlement Agreements in New Mexico: Institutional Change Underway Elizabeth Richards, Sandia National Laboratories	117
Participant List	129