

Mike Kernodle joined the U.S. Geological Survey in 1973 after serving with the State of Tennessee as a geologist for 5 years. Mike has 21 years experience in groundwater-flow modeling, with the last 13 years in New Mexico, and 9 years experience in hydrologic applications of geographic information systems. While in New Mexico, he has authored or co-authored 25 reports, atlases, and papers.

ALBUQUERQUE BASIN GROUNDWATER MODEL

Mike Kernodle
U.S. Geological Survey/WRD
Pinetree Office Park, Suite 200
4501 Indian School Road NE
Albuquerque, NM 87110

SPEAKER DID NOT PROVIDE PAPER FOR PROCEEDINGS