

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Water Conference Advisory Committee	iv
Conference Program.....	v
New Mexico’s 16 Regional Water Plans: One Size Does Not Fit All Angela Bordegaray and Gretel Follingstad, Interstate Stream Commission.....	1
The Legislative Perspective on Funding the State Water Plan Representative Andy Nunez, Chair, Water & Natural Resources Committee.....	9
New Mexico’s Planning Areas Versus Management Areas: Is There a Difference? Blane Sanchez, Commissioner, Interstate Stream Commission.....	11
The Texas Water Planning Process W. David Meesey, Texas Water Development Board	17
Albert E. Utton Memorial Water Lecture A Kaleidoscope of Water Issues Representative Joe Stell, retired New Mexico Legislator	25
New Mexico’s Water and Wastewater Infrastructure Development: Implementation of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act and into the Future Karen Gallegos, New Mexico Environment Department.....	29
The Hidden Value of Science in Planning Wes Danskin, U.S. Geological Survey, San Diego	33
The Land and Water Supply Connection: Does Water Limit Growth? Susan Kelly, Utton Transboundary Resources Center, University of New Mexico	37
Scenario Planning: Making Strategic Decisions in Uncertain Times Timothy Thomure, HDR Engineering, Tucson.....	43
Panel Discussion: Regional Water Planners San Juan Basin, Randy Kirkpatrick	47
Southwest Region, Tom Bates.....	53
Middle Rio Grande, Joe Quintana	55
Flood Control in an Urban Area: Challenges for AMAFCA John Kelly, Albuquerque Metro Area Flood Control Authority	59
NMED’s Approach to Aquifer Storage and Recovery—Water Quality Issues Robert George, New Mexico Environment Department.....	71
The Future of New Mexico’s Deep Water John R. D’Antonio, Jr., Office of the State Engineer.....	75
The Future of Deep Water Permitting Michelle Henrie, MHenrie Land Water	89

Deep Water Permitting: The Good, The Bad and The Just Plain Ugly
Ann Berkley Rodgers, Chestnut Law Office 93

The Future of New Mexico’s Deep Water Permitting
Guy Bralley, Sandoval County 99

Using New Mexico’s AIS Management Plan and Legislation to Protect Our Aquatic Resources
Barbara Coulter, New Mexico Department of Game and Fish 105

They Are Going to Miss Me When I’m Gone: The Loss of Knowledge and Institutional
Memory Due to Retirement
Karl Wood, New Mexico Water Resources Research Institute 113

Participant List 117