

This index map shows the original study area (red rectangle) described in the printed WRRRI Technical Completion Report No. 332 and the expanded study area (blue rectangle) which is the focus of this addendum. All materials associated with the addendum are included on the CD-ROM in the packet of the printed report except for this index map and brief explanation. The addendum text file: addendum.pdf describes all report modifications and additional materials in detail.
